WHO ARE WE?

Jiwa International is a faith-based organization focused on identifying and meeting the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of vulnerable migrant workers.

Jiwa International's primary work is done in south-central Taiwan through Cafe Jiwa, a social enterprise providing a taste of home and a welcoming space for the community. Our multi-national team made up of Americans, Indonesians, and Taiwanese reaches out to the Indonesian community in and around Yunlin County.

We partner with churches in the United States, Indonesia, and Taiwan, as well as Taiwanese local governments and other organizations to see the lives of vulnerable migrant workers tangibly improve as they provide needed labor to developed countries and support their families and communities in their developing home countries.

WHAT'S CAFE JIWA: TO-GO?

Since Cafe Jiwa opened its doors in late 2024, we've seen how a shared cup of coffee and a welcoming space can turn strangers into friends and build real community.

But due to limited transportation and minimal time off, getting to Cafe Jiwa from even a town ten minutes away can be impossible for some migrant workers.

In 2025, we test ran multiple Mobile Markets out of the back of our personal vehicles and saw how showing up in more remote communities with food, Southeast Asian ingredients, used clothing, and genuine presence can make a meaningful difference.

Each time we went on a Mobile Market run, we would be asked if we would come back again with even more things, but the back of our cars were already stuffed full!

We started to dream about how a dedicated vehicle for Mobile Markets would allow Cafe Jiwa & Jiwa International to expand its reach and impact within south-central Taiwan.

Small food trucks are a common sight in Taiwan (like the one below) and we imagine outfitting the back of the truck to carry used clothing, a small coffee bar, and space for Indonesian food and ingredients. This dedicated set up will allow us to run Mobile Market more often in more places!

Cafe Jiwa: To-Go! removes the barrier of distance by going where the need is—be it in rice fields, fisheries, factories, or isolated towns often overlooked. By doing so, we also bring community and hope to the migrant worker population in Taiwan!
